RyanSharkey Adds New Partner

Reston, VA—The local CPA and consulting firm of RyanSharkey has announced the addition of Michael Eagan, CPA to its partner group.

Eagan brings a tax background of more than 18 years to the RyanSharkey team, where he will serve as a partner in the firm's tax department. He has extensive experience in all areas of tax, including corporate income tax, state and local tax, FAS 109, international tax, and mergers and acquisitions. Eagan has also advised a wide array of clients, both public and private, including those in the manufacturing, technology, retail, telecommunications and government contracting industries.

"We are pleased to have Mike on board and his expertise, background and business acumen are all welcomed additions to our firm," said Edward Ryan, Managing Partner of RyanSharkey. "I look forward to his contributions to the growth and continued success of RyanSharkey, as well as enhanced services for our clients."

Prior to joining RyanSharkey, Eagan served as a partner at regional CPA firm in Vienna, Virginia and also worked for a "Big Four" international accounting firm. Additionally, Eagan has served in senior management roles for publicly-traded pharmaceutical and telecommunications companies.

Eagan is a graduate of George Mason University, where he earned a Bachelor of Science degree in accounting. His professional memberships include the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) and Greater Washington Society of Certified Public Accountants (GWSCPA). Eagan is also a 2004 graduate of Leadership Fairfax.
